Property Description

Located in the heart of Limoux in the Aude, just a stone's throw from the historic city of Carcassonne, this 19th-century cut-stone building offers a blend of charm and potential. With easy access to Carcassonne's airport, central train station, and regular flights to the UK, Limoux is a lively and festive city brimming with events and amenities. A mere 30-minute train or bus ride connects you to Carcassonne, making it an ideal location for convenience and leisure.

Limoux serves as the technical and health hub for Aude's High Valley, ensuring that all your needs are met easily. Just a 5-minute drive away, you'll find the picturesque village of Alet-les-Bains, renowned for its beautiful spring water and inviting public swimming pool. The area is a haven for retirees, offering an exceptional quality of life, with the nearest ski resort just a 1.5-hour drive away.

The building itself is a testament to the craftsmanship of a bygone era. You'll find a spacious shop with a back room on the ground floor, perfect for a bustling business. Across the main hall, a versatile spare room awaits, easily convertible into a cosy studio. The courtyard features a former restroom and sink, adding to the property's practicality.

Ascending to the first floor, you'll discover two elegant one-bedroom apartments, each boasting a large living room with high ceilings and charming fireplaces. These sun-drenched spaces exude a sense of warmth and sophistication. The second floor houses a one-bedroom and two-bedroom apartments, both bathed in natural light. While the second floor requires some renovation, the first floor and shop are in excellent condition. Additionally, the building includes a clean and spacious cellar, perfect for storage.

Electric radiators provide heating while cooking and water heating can be powered by electricity or gas, thanks to the city's gas network. Technical reports are currently being prepared and will be available soon. The total surface area is approximately 320 square meters, though it may be even more spacious.

The current owner, an elderly lady, has decided to sell the property as she cannot oversee the renovations for the second-floor apartments. The family hopes to find a new owner or a group of co-owners who will appreciate the building's charm and potential. With four separate flats, this property offers an excellent opportunity for co-ownership, making it an attractive investment for those seeking a unique living arrangement.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
