Property Description

This place full of history offers itself as a setting to be reinvented, ready to welcome a new life or transformation project.

With more than 250 sqm of living space, the main building is revealed with generous volumes, bright living rooms and an atmosphere that preserves the authenticity of the past.

It includes three spacious bedrooms and an office, offering a comfortable setting.

Beyond this already furnished living space, more than 400 sqm additional are to be redesigned, spread over several levels.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
