Property Description

Located between Castelnau-Magnoac and Boulogne-sur-Gesse, this big 180 m² house has 5 bedrooms, a swimming pool, a big basement and more than 5000 m² of land.

The style of the house is inspired by the architecture of Basque houses and immediately immerses you in a cosy and peaceful ambiance.

The materials are a combination of concrete and wood, with lovely beams in all the rooms and windows with single glazing. The frames date from the first half of the 20th century, some needing to be replaced by double glazing even if they are beautiful and have the original closing system.

The ground floor resembles a basement with a garage, a laundry room, boiler room and workshop (more than 100 m²).

The most interesting things are found on the first floor, which is reached by an interior staircase or by two exterior staircases. This floor is composed of a big kitchen-cum-dining room (28 m²) with a wood-burning heater and a very bright living room (36 m²) that also has a wood-burning heater. Both rooms give onto a big wooden terrace that faces east and south. This floor also has a bedroom and study (13 m² each), a shower-room and a separate toilet.

An impressive wooden staircase leads to the space under the rafters and has high ceilings. You'll enjoy four more bedrooms (2 x 14 m², 17 m² & 20 m²) and an attic space (19 m²).

The house is obviously big, bright and functional. It has oil-fired central heating with a 3000L tank that is buried, an electric hot-water heater and a septic tank for the drainage system.

The swimming pool is 10m x 5 m and has a salt filtration system as well as an electric cover system. The land of more than 5000 m² is divided into two parts. The first part of 3000 m² surrounds the house and the second (2000 m²) is on the other side of the street, making ideal to be used for an orchard or for animals.

Located 5 minutes from Castelnau-Magnoac; 10 min from Boulogne-sur-Gesse; 45 min from Auch and Tarbes; 1 hr 30 min from Toulouse and ski slopes; 2 hr from the Atlantic coast; 3 hr 30 min from the Mediterranean Sea.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
