Property Description

Located in the Capitole district, this loft-style apartment is nestled on the 4th and top floor of a magnificent condominium with a private elevator and offers a surface area of 132.39 sqm (Carrez law). Upon entering, the space is impressive, and light floods through the various rooms. On one side, the dining room features beautiful hardwood flooring. The separate, fully equipped kitchen adjoins it and offers plenty of storage. On the other side, the living room/TV area offers a cozy setting thanks to its beams and high ceilings. It also has a mezzanine that can be used as an office area. The property features 3 beautiful bedrooms, each with a dressing room and bathroom, all in a private space. A cellar completes the property. A parking space is available for purchase. The condominium is surrounded by a wooded park. This exceptional loft is the ideal place for family life or a pied-à-terre in a perfectly maintained condominium, perfect for city living in the "City of Roses." Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
