Property Description

Behind a discreet facade typical of the region, this elegant 18th-century Toulouse house offers approximately 280 sqm of living space on two levels, nestled in a 1100 sqm green setting. Tastefully redesigned, the renovation reveals its original character. Exposed beams, cement tiles, generous volumes, and floodlights create a warm and sophisticated atmosphere. The ground floor features a vast, open-plan living room of 70 sqm, bathed in light and facing the garden. The separate, fully equipped kitchen flows smoothly as an extension of the living space. Two closed lounges complete this level, providing space for multiple uses: office, library, TV room, or spare bedrooms. Upstairs, the sleeping area is organized around a mezzanine opening onto the living room, creating a subtle link between the two levels. Four bedrooms are located here, each with its own bathroom, for optimal comfort. At the rear of the house, the landscaped garden stretches out, hidden from view. A north-facing terrace, a pétanque court, and a dedicated swimming pool and jacuzzi area: the exterior naturally extends the house's art of living. A carport and several private parking spaces within the plot allow for easy parking. Combining old-world charm with contemporary features, this house combines elegance, comfort, and functionality, just a stone's throw from the shops in the center of Castelginest. Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
