Property Description

In the heart of the charming village of Torreilles, just minutes from the Mediterranean beaches, this charming house will appeal to lovers of authenticity.

Generously proportioned, this 3-storey village house boasts high ceilings, decorative period fireplaces and superb cement-tiled floors, all of which bear witness to its carefully preserved character.

The first floor features a large entrance hall with wood-burning stove leading to a bright living room and separate kitchen.

The 1st floor opens onto a landing leading to a first bedroom with dressing room, an independent shower room and a second bedroom with en-suite shower room.

The 2nd floor leads to a landing and two further bedrooms.

Less than 20 minutes from Perpignan, Torreilles is a typical Catalan village, renowned for its unspoilt charm, picturesque alleyways, local markets and listed natural beaches.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
