To the right, the adjoining rooms consist of a bedroom (11.2 m²) currently used as a study and another bedroom (27.4 m²) that has access from the living room.

An interior staircase connects the 2 levels of the house.

The ground floor is composed of a big kitchen (37 m²) and a living room (26 m²), both with patio doors giving onto the terrace. From the kitchen, you can go to a shower-room that is currently under construction, to the garage (22 m²) and to another room (26 m²) that is currently used as the plant room, but could be converted into bedrooms.

This property is finished off with a separate agricultural hangar (114 m²), with a carport and a wood shed.

The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
