Property Description

In the heart of the sought-after Croix-Daurade neighborhood, this characterful 1930s house elegantly combines Art Deco charm with contemporary comfort. Offering 240 sqm of living space, including 170 sqm under the Carrez law, on three levels, it comes with a modern timber-framed outbuilding nestled on a 500 sqm plot of land with century-old trees. A unique and versatile living space, combining generous volumes with a warm atmosphere. From the entrance, the character of the period is evident: solid wood floors, cement tiles, and a period fireplace create a refined ambiance. This first level features a light-filled space with a working fireplace, a dining room adorned with a wood-burning stove, and a fully equipped kitchen with a pantry, opening onto an intimate terrace. The master suite, with a dressing room, is located on the same level, adjoining a refined bathroom with a freestanding bathtub and its view of the garden, a walk-in shower completes the ensemble. The second floor, under the eaves, reveals a space that invites relaxation, bright thanks to the Velux openings, accompanied by a bedroom and a bathroom. On the garden level, a convertible plateau of 87 sqm offers multiple possibilities of development: garage, storage space or independent apartment. The exterior extends this harmony with a landscaped garden, a welcoming terrace and a contemporary timber-framed outbuilding, ideal for a workshop, a professional space, or an independent home. This unique property, renovated by an architect with quality materials and optimized insulation, offers a perfect alliance between heritage and modernity. Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
