Property Description

Originally a local cooperative, this elegantly transformed winery is one of the area's best-kept secrets.... Spacious, south exposed and airy, in many respects replicating the "loft living" style popular in urban rejuvenation, it retains all the attributes of a village environment.

The main rooms, and two first floor all-weather terraces, have undisturbed south-facing pastoral views, as does the rear-facing garden. Ground floor entrance is through a two-storey hall of 120 sm, with chandelier lighting, an open fireplace and an upper gallery leading from the main accommodation to a south facing all-weather terrace of 50 sm. The hall is a marvellous venue for family gatherings and parties.

The modern, fully equipped kitchen has a walk-in pantry and is open to the dining room which has large, south facing windows opening the room to the sitting room, 95 sm, is reached from the dining room through double doors. 5 metre wide sliding glass doors, open the room to a south facing, all-weather terrace. Built-in bookshelves and illuminated glass display cupboards fill one wall.

A brick chimney breast between the dining room and sitting room houses a wood-burning stove serving both. A south-facing study, 25 sm, has built-in bookshelves and cupboards is reached from the sitting room.

A corridor, off the sitting room leads to a guest WC and four double, ensuite bedrooms: Bedroom 2 with 4 metres built-wardrobes; Bedroom 3, Bedroom 4 with an attractive fireplace; and Bedroom 5 of 47 sm, comprises bedroom, bathroom and south facing sitting room. Bedroom 1 with ensuite with built-in wardrobes is reached from the dining room and has direct access to the terrace.

On the ground floor, a large wine cellar of 90 sm, perfect for a games room, and a separate laundry room are reached from the entrance hall which has large electrically operated shutters.

Outside, the garden approximately 700 sm has a number of mature trees giving shade to car parking.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
