Property Description

* NEW PRICE * Large and atypical property in the heart of town in Ille-sur-Têt with 520m² of living space plus garden and swimming pool.

This charming “maison de maître”, in need of work, offers spacious volumes and numerous development possibilities. It is currently used as an artists' residence.

The house opens on the ground floor onto a pretty patio, an entrance hall and a beautiful living room. This level also has a boiler room, a laundry room, toilets and access to a cellar. A hall gives access to the garden and the swimming pool. A majestic staircase with a natural skylight serves the floors.

The 1st floor of the house with an exceptional volume of 226m² has a kitchen, two pantries, a dining room, a living room, 2 offices, 2 bedrooms (one with dressing room), a shower room and two bathrooms.

The 2nd floor has a kitchen, a living room, 3 bedrooms, a workshop, a bathroom and 2 shower rooms.

Steeped in history, the house is located in the new districts that developed from the 13th century, and which were integrated into the 3rd and last city wall towards the end of the 14th century. The main facade opens onto one of the main communication axes within the town. In 1793, the house was transformed into a military infirmary in the context of the war of the army of the Republic against Spain.

Ille sur Têt is a busy town located in the Têt Valley, 25 minutes to the west of Perpignan and just over an hour to the ski slopes of Les Angles and Font Romeu. Ille sur Têt is famous for the natural rock formations known as the "orgues".

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
