Property Description

Nestled in the peaceful heart of Aude in southwest France, this remarkable and rare Domaine spans over 33 hectares of fully fenced land, offering a tranquil haven away from prying eyes.

A Stately Manor with Timeless Elegance

At the heart of this haven lies this Anglo-Norman-style Manor. Dating back to 1840 this grand residence spans an impressive 700 square meters, where spacious rooms are adorned with exquisite woodwork and luxurious finishes. The estate is a testament to nature's artistry, boasting a private well, a spring, and a waterfall that gushes with 200 liters per second, a constant flow throughout the year. These natural wonders grace the landscape, nourishing two small lakes.

Beyond the Manor House

Complementing the main house is a series of outbuildings, each with its unique character, including a 17th-century 'cooler' crafted from granite blocks. Shelter your vehicles in the spacious multi-car garage, a 162-square-meter masterpiece with polished concrete flooring. Admire art in the gallery dedicated to paintings or enjoy a swim in the indoor heated swimming pool (10x4) with a 200-square-meter summer kitchen that beckons for al fresco gatherings. There's an option to purchase an additional 30 ha of land and woods adjoining this property and also electrified fence with a lake, an airstrip + a large guest chalet for 500 000 euros.

A Symphony of Nature

This estate is set amidst ancient forests, graced by trees that have stood tall for over three centuries. You'll fall in love with this enchanting natural world, where the entire property is encircled by a majestic 'big game' fence, soaring to an electrifying 10 KW across approximately 5 kilometers. The Domaine boasts two grand entrances—one from the North, another from the South—welcoming you to this natural sanctuary. Within these forested realms, sedentary fallow deer find their home, adding a touch of enchantment to this privileged and rare haven.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
