Property Description

Former stone barn, built on 3 levels, refurbished and tastefully converted into a loft-type dwelling and located in the popular village of Torreilles. A stone's throw from amenities and very close to the beach.

The living space of this atypical and character village house is located on the 2nd floor and consists of a large and bright South-facing living room with open kitchen and living room, giving on to 2 Tropezian-style terraces with sheltered views - a terrace to the north and a terrace to the south allowing you to fully enjoy the outdoors in summer and winter. This level also has a bathroom with WC. The master bedroom is located on the mezzanine.

The ground floor and 1st floor can be converted and offer multiple possibilities: additional bedrooms, garage, workshop, etc...

Torreilles is a typical Mediterranean village, very popular with artists, with a rich terroir, preserved nature such as a 4km wild beach, a protected natural site classified as a coastal conservatory.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
