Property Description

Farm dating from 1790 on 3ha with many possibilities

The foundation stone of this old farmhouse was laid in 1790. After that, several adjustments followed and now it is a nice house with a gite and several outbuildings where there are still plenty of opportunities to make the whole to your liking.

The house is located just outside a small village on a quiet country road and has breathtaking views on the property where now 2 horses graze.

The house consists of a compact kitchen, an entrance with beautiful old stairs (in 2 parts), on the landing an entrance to a spacious bathroom and 2 bedrooms on the first floor.

Then there is a huge, nice summer kitchen (55 m²) where the entrance is to a gite with a bathroom and 2 bedrooms.

Attached to it is a barn where dogs and cats are now housed that are waiting for a new owner. This space could also be made suitable for other purposes.

Attached to the house (as an L-shape) a large barn that is still in its original state but that can also be made for all kinds of applications. Floorboards for the first floor are already present for this purpose.

Then there is an open barn (72m²) where the horses are now housed in the winter and also offers space for garden tools.

Separate from the house a large metal open barn of over 200m² that now serves as a garage and storage.

In short, a house with many possibilities.

The site is accessible through 2 gates.

In short, a house with many possibilities. If you would like to keep animals and possibly rent out the gite, this is an excellent option.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
