Property Description

Located in a village close to Aurignac is this charming stone house to renovate. There are 150m² of space with a pleasant plot of land with trees of 4900m² and attached garages.

The house is comprised of, on the ground floor, a 22m² kitchen serving the 36m² garage to the right. Continuing on is a 27m² living area and a 22m² sitting room.

Stairs lead up from the left of the living room to a landing serving an 18m² bedroom and a 6m² space perfect for adding a washroom.

To the right, a hallway serves two bedrooms, 11m² and 13m². At the end is an 8m² bathroom.

The loft runs the length of the building and is perfect for conversion.

The house has another garage offering 53m² of space.

Work should be carried out: heating, wiring, insulation, bathroom...the roof has been revised.

Nature lovers and hikers will adore the nearby country trails and convince you to make this property your home.

You will be close to Aurignac, 1h10 from Toulouse, 1h15 from Spain and from skiing, 2h15 from the Atlantic Ocean and 2h30 from the Mediterranean coast.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
