Property Description

Ideally located in the town center of Montesson, this charming 19th century house has evolved over time by taking on a superb contemporary extension. Built on a plot of 330 m<sup>2</sup>, it develops an area of 204 m<sup>2</sup> spread over 3 levels and offers several outdoor spaces. After a flight of stairs, the house opens onto a spacious entrance hall with storage. In the continuity of the latter, a pleasant room is profiled offering on one side a beautiful fully equipped open kitchen, and on the other a relaxation/office area with a view overlooking the living room below, which has taken place in the contemporary extension of 28 m<sup>2</sup>. The latter, bathed in light thanks to its fully glazed wall, offers exceptional ceiling height and direct access to a paved courtyard located at the front of the house. It is decorated with a wood stove that will warm up the winter evenings? On the same level as the living room, there is a games room and a dining room that has retained all the charm of the old with their exposed stone walls. It opens onto a pleasant wooded garden with a terrace that invites you to relax with family or friends. Accessible from the main entrance of the house, the attic floor houses the sleeping area consisting of 2 bedrooms, a dressing room that can be used as a bedroom, and a large parental area of 40 m<sup>2</sup> (with the possibility of creating a Bathroom). The latter has an unsuspected solarium which has taken place on the roof of the extension, and offers an unobstructed view of the surroundings. A bathroom completes this level. A scullery/laundry room, a large cellar/boiler room, a double garage with a large storage space on the mezzanine, as well as 2 parking spaces in the courtyard, complete the services of this exceptional house. This beautiful building, renovated with taste, has managed to combine the charm of the old and a contemporary extension with quality services for the comfort and well-being of family life. ## Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
