Property Description

In the center of the village, close to shops and schools, this charming old house is built on a pleasant enclosed garden of 700 m². The land is divided into 3 distinct parts in order to offer both pleasure and functionality: an adorable little tree-lined courtyard leads to a gate on the street for easy access when returning from foot races, a beautiful paved esplanade is reserved for access cars and parking, and finally an adorable priest's garden faces the house and offers unusual access to a pretty vaulted cellar. The house has several levels and half-levels, which gives it a real character. On the garden level, a large entrance leads to a guest toilet, a large laundry room and a pleasant fitted kitchen with dining area, which makes it a living room in its own right. Another level reveals a double living room of approximately 50 m², crossing light with its triple orientation, which is presented in 2 open parts: a beautiful dining area, then a pleasant cathedral living room slightly raised by a few steps. A cathedral veranda completes the living spaces and fills the need for an office, workshop or games room. A few steps higher, it is the parental space which is structured around a landing with cupboard, offering a bedroom and a large bathroom with shower and bathtub and a toilet. Above we discover two other spacious and bright bedrooms, under cathedral attic spaces, ideal for accommodating children's space. Finally, to complete this set, there are added 2 garages of 27 m² each, 3 cellars and 1 workshop. Aubergenville is a very dynamic town which has numerous sports and cultural infrastructures, small businesses as well as large shopping centers. Local shops, school 3 minutes walk. Middle school and high school on site. Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
