Property Description

Located in a quiet Pantinoise street in the immediate vicinity of Henri Barbusse Park, a majestic loft of 223m², spread over two levels enjoying a cathedral living room with 6m high ceilings.

An entrance with a custom dressing room benefits from a TV area and extends into the living room with a wood stove, opening onto a refined kitchen, structured around a stainless steel worktop and totaling 102m². This south-facing space benefits from numerous openings providing constant light and access to a 12m² patio connected to the living room and the kitchen.

A 27m² master suite is completed by a dressing room and a shower room. A pantry, a laundry room and an independent water closet complete the level.

The first level is accessible by a large custom-made metal staircase.

An open space used as an office distributes three bedrooms measuring between 15 and 18m², two of which provide access to a tropézienne of approximately 30m², a shower room and an independent water closet.

This unique living space is characterized by the absence of vis-à-vis, calm, brightness and volumes.

The combination of raw materials, such as wood, concrete, steel, the Eiffel structure, and the glass roof give the whole a contemporary spirit.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
