Property Description

Ideally located in the lively Bonne Nouvelle / Sentier districts, this 84.22 sqm (70.95 sqm Carrez law) duplex is on the top floors of a pre-1800 building.

Past the entrance, a flight of steps leads to this apartment occupying the fourth and fifth floors.

The top floor houses a living space bathed in light thanks to its double south-east and north-west exposures. This level, with its undeniable charm with its exposed beams, accommodates a warm living room as well as a dining room with an open kitchen, perfect for entertaining.

The lower level is composed of two beautiful bedrooms of 17.5 m² and 15.5 m², comfortable and quiet, benefiting from a functional and elegant bathroom.

A stone's throw from shops, restaurants and transport, this bright duplex under the roof offers a cozy living space in the heart of Paris.

Close to metro stations Bonne Nouvelle, Strasbourg-Saint-Denis and Sentier (Lines 3, 4, 8 and 9)

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
