Property Description

Located between Saint-Maur and Pontault-Combault, this old fortified farm enjoys an exceptional location.

It is in La Queue-en-Brie that this estate is located, comprising nearly 3 hectares of free land, populated with a wood, a meadow, a listed pond, a property of nearly 300 sqm as well as a caretaker's house.

It is a large estate where the past is engraved in each stone.

The history goes back to the 15th century.

Advisors to King Henry III, parliamentary lawyers and other prestigious figures succeeded one another at the seigneurie of the Hermitage until 1868, when the family of the current owners took possession of the estate for the first time. One of the ancestors of this great lineage even became mayor of La Queue-en-Brie in 1922.

For several decades, they would exploit and cherish the place, transform it, embellish it and fill it with children and grandchildren.

It is with great emotion that at the bend of this long road, this estate is looking for a new owner.

Painted by Henri Rouart in 1885, the place is fabulous.

It transports us instantly and with infinite gentleness to a dream lifestyle, made of nature and wide open spaces. The property opens onto a vast path leading to the main house of 311 sqm (238 habitable).

It is certainly necessary to rethink the spaces, steeped in history, but the structure and the beams, intact and solid, bear witness to the robustness of the constructions of the time as well as the maintenance carried out by the family of owners.

The mansion will indeed be enlarged and renovated many times during the years of operation of the farm.

Inside, large rooms reveal a period decoration on the ground floor: large fireplace, black and white tiled floors, solid parquet floors. The living room, overlooking the estate thanks to its wonderful glass veranda, has retained its original character.

The kitchen offers a breathtaking view of the pond.

A bedroom and an office are located on the ground floor.

The first floor houses several bedrooms, bathrooms and toilets, joined by large corridors in a row and enhanced with period decor and noble architectural elements.

A caretaker's house, in an outbuilding, is also included in the sale. Cellars and vaults complete the services. The woods and ponds are listed. The property is surrounded by walls and not overlooked.

Once adored, this property is overwhelming by its beauty, its history and its destiny.

In these authentic places, less than 40 minutes from Paris, one can imagine a different life.

Surrounded by this nature, walking through the undergrowth for endless games of hide-and-seek or enjoying summer swims in the pond. Rediscovering the taste of yesteryear, bringing together those who are dear to us in one place. It would almost be a dream.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
