Property Description

In a residential alley in the south-central part of Malakoff, this pretty house from 1919 is built on two levels plus converted combs. It covers 156 m² of floor space, including 86 m² of living space. It also benefits from a semi-buried basement, and has rare potential in the area.

The ground floor consists of a first room that can be used as a bedroom or office, a living room with a glass roof illuminating the entire reception area and an open kitchen. A French window gives access to a staircase serving a small garden sheltered from view and a lean-to.

Upstairs, a landing serves two spacious bedrooms, a bathroom with toilet, and a staircase opening onto a converted attic of 25 m² on the ground floor.

Part of the basement in English courtyard houses a large office with its own access to the garden and a laundry area.

Adjoining the house, former stables offer extraordinary perspectives, ideal for multiple reinterpretations according to your desires.

This real estate complex in the immediate vicinity of transport and all the amenities of downtown Malakoff, offers a rare opportunity to create a unique property.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
