Property Description

Immerse yourself in the past with this magnificent, completely renovated farmhouse from 1830, nestled in the green surroundings of the town of Vaucresson. Built on a beautiful wooded plot of 850 m², this 162 m² house which has retained many period elements, offers a striking contrast between authenticity and contemporary refinement. Between old doors and old beams, the charm operates from the entrance, which leads on one side to a dining area and a fully equipped modern kitchen, and on the other to the 35 m² cathedral living room. This space, with herringbone parquet flooring and a beautiful insert fireplace, is a real cocoon with a warm atmosphere. Its numerous openings generously let in natural light. The tailor-made staircase is integrated discreetly and leads to the mezzanine which houses the parental space. Continuing from the office area, then the bedroom, the dressing room and the bathroom are revealed. The turret, accessible from the inside and outside of the building, offers a completely independent sleeping area with a bathroom and two beautiful bedrooms, one of which reveals a superb wooden frame and a small balcony with a breathtaking view on the garden and the surrounding area. A 14 m² outbuilding with bedroom and bathroom, which can be connected to the main house, completes the services of this exceptional property, unique in the area. The complete renovation has transformed this building into a modern oasis while respecting period features such as arched windows and columns, thus offering the best of both worlds in a harmonious setting.
