Property Description

In a luxury Haussmannian building, whose façade will be completely renovated in the coming months, this fully air-conditioned apartment of 205.35 m² (177.10 m² Carrez) occupies the 4th floor by elevator. Currently arranged with three bedrooms, it will be possible to create four or five bedrooms. Crossing and bathed in light thanks to its multiple exposures (mainly South), it benefits from a continuous balcony of around twenty m² offering a tree-lined and unobstructed view of the Place du Brésil. The rotunda entrance introduces a vast, friendly reception area, where the charm of the old meets high-end services. The double reception area, composed of a living room with fireplace and a dining room, is distinguished by its generous volumes and refined finishes. The exposed half-timbering in the living room gives a unique elegance, sublimating the authenticity of this living space. Delicate moldings and fully functional period fireplaces harmoniously dialogue with an elegant and contemporary renovation. Adjoining the dining room, the eat-in kitchen seduces with its neat layout and prestigious equipment. Custom-designed, it is equipped with 11 Gaggenau elements and is completed by a back kitchen equipped with a laundry area. The night area, designed to offer comfort and privacy, consists of two suites and a bedroom, each offering access to the balcony and an unobstructed view. The master suite impresses with its double-height ceiling and its Murano glass pendant light, a centerpiece that enhances the space. It has a refined bathroom, a fitted dressing room and a staircase leading to a library and a large mezzanine office. The second suite benefits from a dressing room followed by a large contemporary bathroom. The separation between the dressing room and the bedroom created by the craftsmen of Kazéhana and Tuillière brings a unique architectural touch to the whole. The third bedroom has its own bathroom. The apartment also includes a separate toilet, as well as two former service bedrooms converted into a dressing room and technical room for the heat pump. In the basement, two large cellars, one of which is converted into a wine and tasting cellar, demonstrate the attention to detail. A large parking space in a neighboring building is available at an additional cost. In a secure condominium with caretaker, videophone and alarm, this exceptional apartment combines Haussmannian refinement and the discreet luxury of a contemporary renovation. Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
