Property Description

This Californian house, quiet and not overlooked, built in 2019 located at the top of the Impressionists hill in La Celle-Saint-Cloud, is a superb contemporary residence with a refined and minimalist style.

It stands out for its modern architecture, characterized by clean geometric lines and cantilevered volumes that create a harmonious play of superpositions.

The smooth white facade is punctuated by large bay windows that maximize the supply of natural light and offer a panoramic view of the surrounding landscape. The spacious terraces on each level, bordered by metal railings, allow you to fully enjoy the green setting.

The integration of the house into its natural environment is particularly successful, with a carefully landscaped garden (swimming pool) mixing green lawn, grass beds and gently sloping paths. The whole exudes discreet luxury and comfort, ideal for a residence that is both elegant and functional.

The entrance to this house is spacious, bright and elegant. It is characterized by a light wooden staircase with curved lines, with a modern metal banister that brings a touch of sophistication. The parquet floor adds a warm and refined atmosphere.

A corridor with a vestibule and a separate toilet, serves the large living room of 70 sqm, creating a fluid transition between the spaces. Thanks to its huge bay windows, it offers a clear view of the valley and the surrounding nature, providing a feeling of openness and serenity.

The gas fireplace, modernly integrated into the wall, is a central element of the living room, adding a cozy and refined atmosphere. Direct access to the terrace allows you to fully enjoy the panorama, creating a harmonious continuity between the interior and the exterior. It is an ideal space to relax, entertain or simply contemplate the beauty of the surrounding landscape.

A large 28 sqm office has found its place in continuity with the living room, opening onto the terrace in order to also benefit from the clear view.

The separate 23 sqm kitchen, fully fitted and equipped, is modern, spacious and bright. It offers a dining area and bar with high stools. Large bay windows provide an abundance of natural light and open onto the terrace with an outdoor dining area, offering a beautiful view of the wooded environment.

On this level, accessible via the corridor, there is a 35 sqm studio with kitchenette, shower room and WC which also has a separate entrance.

Upstairs, a gallery serves on one side the 45 sqm parental space, bringing together the master bedroom with its terrace through a sliding bay window with a generous opening allowing beautiful natural light, the bathroom with Italian shower and toilet, as well as a spacious dressing room.

Along the gallery, two other suites of 24 and 26 sqm will share the terrace, one with its shower room, the other with its bathroom. Access to the garden level, via the staircase, offers on the one hand a second reception of 35 sqm, a home cinema lounge, as well as a suite, shower room and WC, and on the other, a large cellar, a laundry room and a boiler room.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
