Property Description

A few minutes from the A13 axis connecting the Normandy seaside resorts, nestled in the heart of a green park of nearly 8000 m², this former stable was built at the beginning of the 20th century by a famous Swiss agri-food group, hence its architecture faithfully inspired by Alpine chalets. Upon your arrival, you will be welcomed by a spacious entrance which serves on the one hand, a fitted and equipped kitchen with dining area, a large utility room, a real wine cellar, and on the other hand, a triple living room bathed in light thanks to large bay windows offering a breathtaking view of the garden and the swimming pool. On the first floor, a large landing distributes a glass office overlooking the living room, a master suite with its bathroom, and 3 other bedrooms, most of which have access to a balcony with a view of the surrounding countryside. Finally, 2 bathrooms and toilets complete this level which still benefits from an equivalent surface area to be converted. On the second floor, a very bright landing room thanks to its skylight leads to a 5th bedroom or playroom or reading room. Outside, the park extends majestically over the countryside, inviting relaxation and contemplation. The swimming pool with its terrace is the perfect place to enjoy sunny days. The major asset of this property is the usable surface area since there is a total of approximately 500 m² per level, currently divided into a living area and numerous garages, workshops and attics that can be converted into a home, which makes it an exceptional space for a large family, a liberal activity, a craftsman or even an investor who wishes to make several dwellings there! A13, SNCF train station, schools and shops are just a few minutes away. By train, Direct to Paris in 50 mins ENERGY CLASS: E / CLIMATE CLASS E Average energy prices included for the years 2021, 2022 and 2023 (subscriptions included): between EUR7,410 and EUR10,060 per year

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
