Property Description

Located near the Gabriel Péri metro station, in the heart of Asnières-sur-Seine, this 1930s house offers 73 m<sup>2</sup> of living space (89 m<sup>2</sup> of floor space), spread over four levels. Entirely redesigned by an architect, it combines old-world charm with contemporary lines, creating a warm and bright atmosphere. The living room opens onto a private 16 m<sup>2</sup> garden, sheltered from view, offering a pleasant outdoor space in the heart of the city.

From the entrance, the renovation reveals its full meaning with a large open-plan space bathed in light thanks to glass walls and a skylight. The ground floor houses a living room with a wood-burning stove, a fully equipped open-plan kitchen, and a dining room overlooking the garden.

On the lower level, a bedroom with a skylight, a bathroom, a separate toilet, and an office make up a separate level, ideal for a guest bedroom or a remote workspace.

On the first floor, a bedroom with an en-suite shower room, double sinks, toilet, and built-in closets occupies the sleeping area.

Under the attic, a third charming attic bedroom lends itself to a variety of uses: a child's bedroom, office, or spare room.

Wooden floors, dual-aspect spaces, and a meticulous renovation enhance the comfort and elegance of this turnkey home.

The private, southwest-facing garden naturally extends the living space outdoors. Fully enclosed, it allows for quiet moments or outdoor dining in complete privacy. Located on a quiet street, this house benefits from a vibrant urban lifestyle, close to transport, local shops, schools, and Asnières' cultural facilities.

Unique with its multi-level design, redesigned architecture, and quality materials, this detached house perfectly embodies an atypical, residential feel.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
