Property Description

Located on a quiet street in the 17th arrondissement, close to the renowned shops of Rue de Lévis, this 67.41 sqm Carrez apartment offers an exceptional living environment with its 55 sqm southwest-facing garden for exclusive use.

Located on the ground floor of a beautiful old building, this dual-aspect property combines old-world charm with modern comfort.

The entrance opens onto a spacious living room with a beautiful ceiling height of nearly 3 meters (possibility of a second bedroom).

The separate kitchen is fully equipped.

The master bedroom has a large custom-made dressing room and is accompanied by a functional shower room.

This property benefits from a sought-after school district (Lycée Carnot) and offers the possibility of practicing a liberal profession.

A cellar completes this property.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
