Property Description

Tucked away in a quiet courtyard, this late 19th-century bourgeois townhouse offers a true escape from time right in the heart of Épinettes, just near the charming Batignolles district.

Behind its preserved brick façade, this character-filled home to make your own spans a total of 368.80 sq.m (288.37 sq.m loi Carrez), plus an additional 72 sq.m of attic space and 121 sq.m of exclusive outdoor areas:

- At the front, a 55 sq.m landscaped garden warmly welcomes visitors.
- At the rear, accessible from both the garden level and basement, a bright 66 sq.m winter garden - ideal as an artist's studio - flooded with natural light.

The 78 sq.m garden level opens onto an entrance hall leading to a 29 sq.m double living room, a 16 sq.m kitchen, a 14 sq.m office, and a separate WC.

This floor can accommodate a professional or home office activity.

The visit continues via the central staircase.

The first floor (76 sq.m) currently features a 26 sq.m sitting room, two beautiful bedrooms (15 and 16 sq.m), a spacious 12 sq.m bathroom, and a separate WC.

On the second floor (74 sq.m), you'll find four bedrooms of around 13 sq.m each, another 12 sq.m bathroom, and a separate WC.

From the landing, there's access to the attic space.

A separate entrance on the ground floor leads to a 62 sq.m basement. Lit by skylights, this level has been converted into a lounge-office, laundry area, shower room, and storage space.

Original features such as parquet flooring, fireplaces, and ceiling moldings will appeal to lovers of authentic architecture.

The house, structurally sound and well maintained, is ready for a modern touch to fully reveal its unique character.

A healthy and spacious 74 sq.m cellar beneath the house completes this property, which is part of a condominium.

A rare property waiting for a new chapter to unlock its full potential.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
