Property Description

In the Bruyères-Postillons district, on the edge of the forest, there is, on the first floor of a very well maintained 1980s building, a 132 m<sup>2</sup> Carrez apartment benefiting from a 23 m<sup>2</sup> balcony-terrace and a loggia of 3 m<sup>2</sup>.

Resulting from the reunification of two lots, this apartment has been the subject of a very beautiful renovation and custom-made refurbishments with quality materials.

The entrance gives access on one side to a master suite with storage-dressing room, extended by a bathroom with toilet; on the other, to a large open living room opening onto the balcony-terrace. Adjoining the living room is a spacious eat-in kitchen extended on either side by the loggia and the balcony-terrace.

This apartment also distributes comfortable guest toilets with water point, a bathroom and two other bedrooms opening onto the balcony-terrace. Two cellars and two parking spaces in the basement complete this apartment with neat services. Sèvres Rive Gauche station 630 meters away.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
