Property Description

This former workshop, converted into a duplex of 118.90 sqm (117.44 sqm Carrez law), is located on the third floor (via elevator) of a beautiful, well-maintained Art Deco building.

The apartment's entrance leads to a toilet and then a recently redesigned semi-open kitchen.

Carefully decorated, the large 52 sqm living room includes a dining room and a living room around an elegant 1930s fireplace.

With a ceiling height of 5.33 meters, the room enjoys pleasant light and illustrates the characteristic space of workshops and lofts.

Upstairs, the mezzanine gallery, which partially overlooks the living room, could also accommodate an office space.

It leads to two beautiful bedrooms of 13 and 15 sqm, which share a large dressing room of nearly 9 sqm and a large bathroom with toilet of nearly 10 sqm.

A 4 sqm cellar completes this property with caretaker.

Heating included in the charges.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
