Property Description

If luxury is about space, rarity lies in the details and uniqueness of this apartment.

This stunning duplex, where volumes, spaces, and noble materials converse in the language of an aesthete and a contemporary art collector, is also set in a preserved location.

Nestled at the end of a secluded alley, in a carefully designed and privileged setting, this 160.42 m² (158.62 m² Carrez) property, reminiscent of a house-loft, offers a unique living environment, enhanced by a refined and meticulously curated Japanese-inspired décor.

The property boasts two entrances.

The garden-level entrance opens onto a pristine living room, where a magnificent gas fireplace, entirely clad in white marble, takes center stage.

Adjacent is the dining area and its open kitchen, offering a cozy and intimate ambiance, with a striking contrast between charred wood and delicate brass accents.

These spaces extend on one side to a terrace, and on the other to a patio, inviting seamless indoor-outdoor living.

On the opposite side of the stairwell, crowned with a full-height glass ceiling, a floor-to-ceiling pivot door reveals a luxurious suite.

Its elegant bathroom harmoniously combines green and black marbles, while the warmly designed bedroom, clad in wood, opens onto the patio. The space discreetly conceals ample storage and a walk-in closet.

Ascending to the first floor, spanning 60 m², a custom-made sculptural metal staircase leads to a spacious office, featuring an exposed brick wall, a full-height openwork bookshelf, and a large floor-to-ceiling window facing southeast.

The tour concludes where it could have begun: the second entrance, fitted with custom storage and serving a separate restroom.

Depending on needs, this office space can be easily converted into two additional bedrooms, accompanied by a second bathroom in place of the entrance.

The subtle interplay of natural light, through multiple direct or reflected sources (terrace, patio, skylight, mirrors), along with strategic viewpoints and perspectives, creates a perception of space even greater than its already generous dimensions suggest.

A rare and truly exceptional gem, designed for architecture and design enthusiasts seeking an extraordinary property.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
