Property Description

Sumptuous apartment in one of the finest addresses in Nice, just a few steps from the waterfront, completely restored and luxuriously renovated in a 17th century baroque building where Matisse once lived, and rehabilitated in 2022.

The apartment is beautifully appointed with high ceiling heights and consists of an entrance leading to a living and dining room, a fully equipped independent kitchen, as well as two en-suite bedrooms, and a separate guest toilet.

Offering an exceptional location on the Cours Saleya and in short walking distance to the Opera de Nice and the historic centre, the port, chateau, and the boutiques are just a short walk across place Massena.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
