Property Description

Lovely 4 bedroom villa with magnificent view within walking distance of Montauroux village and tennis courts.

Downstairs there is a fully fitted kitchen, open-plan dining room/sitting room with large glass windows and a fireplace and one large master bedroom en-suite.

Upstairs are 3 bedrooms and 1 family bathroom and toilet.

The garage is 31m² and can be accessed from inside the house.

Planning permission has been granted for an extension to create a master bedroom en suite upstairs on the flat roof and a further car-port as well as a pool-house and summer kitchen. The concrete pool of 8 x 4m² is in mid-construction and will not be finished by the current owners.

There is fuel heating and the house is very well insulated.

A great opportunity to take on a project which has already been authorised and see it through to the end making personal choices on the way. With planning permissions for pools being temporarily frozen in the area, this is a real bonus and not to be missed!

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
