Property Description

Charming Provençal villa in an estate of 17 villas, located between the hills and a large cultural center.

Entering the gates you will discover a pretty landscaped garden of 1,200 m² with fruit trees and Mediterranean plants as well as a beautiful swimming pool (4x10m) surrounded by large terraces.

The house has an entrance with guest toilets, a large and bright living room with dining area, an office/library, equipped kitchen, all opening onto the terrace through sliding glass doors.

The master suite is located on the ground floor with glass doors opening onto the terrace.

Upstairs there are two more bedrooms sharing a bathroom.

The villa is very well maintained and well located being both close to amenities and a quiet residential area in a green environment.

An ideal house to spend your holidays or for your retirement.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
