Property Description

On a calm street and in a quiet area you find this haven of peace and nature. The villa is welcoming with its avant garde modern architecture and it also gives a warm feeling of connectedness thanks to the placement of the guest pool house as well as the surrounding structures.

On the entrance level you are welcomed by the large living room that leads to the fully equipped kitchen. There is also a master bedroom on this level with its own dressing and bathroom. On the second floor there are two bedrooms, two bathrooms and also two small offices.

The garden allows for privacy and tranquility and complements the exquisite architecture of the villa perfectly. A pool house with its own bedroom and its en-suite blends in with the greenery beautifully.

Having been almost completely finished this is the perfect property for those who value nature, architecture and harmony.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
