Property Description

Located in the sought-after Mont Boron district, this stunning 72 m² (775 sq ft) apartment is set within a charming 1930s villa, part of an exclusive residence with only four owners.

Bathed in natural light thanks to its southwest exposure, this immaculate apartment offers breathtaking views of the sea and the port of Nice. It features a spacious living and dining area with parquet flooring, a fireplace, and a study corner, opening onto a balcony with sea views. The apartment also includes an open-plan kitchen, two bedrooms with built-in storage, and a bathroom with WC.

A private 70 m² (750 sq ft) rooftop terrace, accessible via an exterior spiral staircase, completes this exceptional property. A true haven of peace, it offers panoramic views of the sea, the city of Nice, and the surrounding forest.

A private parking space for one car is included.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
