Very bright and unoverlooked, it extends over several levels served by beautiful marble staircases.

The entrance hall has storage space and a utility room. First floor: living room with open-plan kitchen. Upstairs is a first bedroom with a charming balcony overlooking a pretty little square, a shower room with WC and a second bedroom.

The attic has been converted into a third bedroom with sloping ceilings and lovely views over the town and the sea.

The facade and shutters were repainted in January 2025.

There is ample parking 200 m away.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
