Draguignan is a city on a human scale, warm and dynamic. It is the center of an agglomeration with 107,000 inhabitants, with a constantly growing employment pool since the 2000s. Its activity zones are strategically integrated into the regional economy thanks to the proximity of the A8 to Nice, Aix and Marseille, the A57 to Toulon, as well as the TGV station of Les Arcs. This economic vitality is supported by the tourist craze and the presence of an active student population.

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
