Property Description

Located in a secure and well-maintained residence, this bright, three-room apartment offers a pleasant living environment just a few minutes from the beaches, shops and town centre of Antibes.

Enjoying a beautiful south-east and west exposure, it benefits from a view of the garden and plenty of sunshine throughout the day.

The apartment is in good condition and features a 16 m² living room opening onto a quiet balcony with no overlooking neighbours.

The modern, fully equipped kitchen is separate.

The sleeping area consists of two comfortable bedrooms, one with direct access to the balcony, a contemporary bathroom, separate toilet and a functional dressing room.

A private parking space, a cellar and secure access complete this property.

A rare property, ideal as a main residence, a pied-à-terre or a rental investment, to be discovered without delay.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
