Property Description

This exceptional property from the 1920s is located in a private estate just a few steps from Keller Beach.

The villa features a spacious entrance hall that leads to a fully equipped kitchen, a large dining room, and a bright living room opening onto the pool area, a master bedroom suite, a TV lounge, and an office. On the second floor, there are four bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms, including a master suite with a dressing room and a large terrace offering breathtaking sea views. The top floor contains three additional bedrooms, each with an en-suite bathroom or shower room. The basement is dedicated to wellness, with a sauna, a hammam, a gym with a jacuzzi, and a large wine and champagne cellar.

There is a garage for two cars and additional parking spaces.

This estate in La Garoupe offers a unique living environment, combining comfort and luxury, with every detail meticulously designed for an unparalleled living experience.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
