Property Description

This recently renovated Provencal villa masterfully combines modern amenities with traditional charm. The inviting living room features a fireplace and leads to a dining area and a family-sized kitchen, all opening out to a terrace with expansive sea views. The villa offers five bedrooms, a private study, and a large family room, designed to accommodate family living at its best. A unique wine cellar integrated into the rock adds a distinguished element to the property. The villa is also fitted with underfloor heating and air conditioning for optimal living conditions. The outdoor space is equally impressive, featuring a heated swimming pool, a summer dining area, a sizeable garage, and a petanque court for leisurely afternoons.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
