Property Description

This beautifully renovated stone bastide offers an unmatched level of privacy and tranquility. Renovated with impeccable attention to detail and luxurious materials, this designer home provides a blend of comfort and elegance.

The ground floor features an entrance hall, leading to a spacious and light-filled living room with high ceilings. This room opens directly onto a heated covered terrace, while an elegant TV room with an en suite bathroom offers additional space. A fully equipped kitchen, a study, laundry room, and a guest bedroom with its own en suite bathroom complete the floor.

The first floor reveals another en suite bedroom, as well as a master suite. This suite includes a bathroom, shower room, dressing room, and expansive wrap-around terraces to enjoy the views.

An independent guest house provides a private retreat with a bedroom, shower room, and charming terrace.

The pool area boasts a large heated saltwater pool, a jacuzzi, an outdoor shower, and a pool house with a kitchenette and bar for dining and entertaining.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days cooling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
