Property Description

In Domaine du Redon, Mougins, this contemporary Provençal villa spans 3.2 hectares of pristine grounds near Cannes. Nestled among mature pines and cypress trees, it blends modern comfort with Mediterranean architecture.

The property features clay-tiled roofing and columned terraces leading to a geometric pool. Expansive terraces and a pétanque court accommodate grand gatherings while maintaining intimate spaces.

The 150m<sup>2</sup> living area showcases sophisticated design with high ceilings, polished stone floors, and an open kitchen. A distinctive indoor garden atrium features towering cacti and artistic installations.

The layout offers two zones: the main residence with three en-suite bedrooms and dressing rooms, plus a separate guest wing with three additional en-suite bedrooms and two fully-equipped kitchens.

Located near Mougins School and historic villages, this property combines seclusion with accessibility, representing finest Riviera living with extension potential.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty).

The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
