Property Description

On the 4th and last floor of a very beautiful Art Deco building, this 92,10m² penthouse with roof terrace has a 113 m² terrace with a sea view and a view of the whole city.

It opens onto a magnificent double living room with 3 French windows giving access to the south-west facing terrace.

The kitchen is independent and benefits from a closed veranda hosting the laundry room and the pantry. The two bedrooms overlook the terrace which is the whole of the apartment whose exposure is east, south and west. This apartment is sold with 2 cellars and the possibility of renting a closed garage in the same street.

The area is particularly quiet and residential, close to the city center and enjoying a panoramic view of the sea and the city of Nice.

A real gem not to be missed!

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
