Property Description

Villa for sale with sea view by the architect Gilbert Luc Régis on the heights of Sanary. Lit by a splendid bay window overlooking the swimming pool, this spacious villa is orchestrated around a tropical patio fed by a spring. You will be seduced by the differences in height, the spaces, each of the 4 bedrooms has its own bathroom and the tower has a desk and a tropézienne to contemplate the sea like a lookout. Everything has been thought out to make this residence original: the levels are made up of steps and very gentle slopes, the glazed patio like an interior garden, the covered terrace to afford some freshness, the living room with open fireplace, spaces to read or watch a film. The garden is like the building: large spaces and more intimate places: everything has a crazy charm! of which 3.09 % fees incl. VAT at the buyer's expense.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
