Property Description

EXCLUSIVITY: This beautiful and well kept Bastide in its pure Provencal style benefits a stunning and breathtaking 180 degrees panoramic view of the sea and the glorious Esterel Mountains.

Four large bedrooms whereof two on the ground floor, a living room with an open fire place, large terraces, laundry room, a “tropezienne”(little terrace on the roof), complement the house which add up to a total living surface of 200m2. An additional 50m2 can still be built on the plot of land measuring 2323m2.

The manicured garden with the lush Mediterranean species and several olive trees contribute to the very typical ambiance of the South of France.

Facing South, situated in a very quiet and residential area of Chateauneuf Grasse, very close to golf courses, trails and a forest, it enjoys walking distance to all major amenities and a 25 mn ride to airport and to Cannes.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
