Property Description

Welcome to this magnificent apartment in the sought-after Montfleury neighborhood, within walking distance of downtown and the Croisette beaches. This top-floor apartment has been entirely renovated in a contemporary, refined style.

It comprises an entrance hall, a large, bright living room with large bay windows opening onto a south-west-facing terrace. Stunning views of the sea, Le Suquet, the Lérins islands and the Estérel massif. A fully-equipped kitchen and dining room open onto the living room. Master bedroom with large dressing room, bathroom with bath and shower and WC. Two en suite bedrooms, each with its own shower room, one with WC. There's also a guest toilet.

In addition, there's a vast terrace on the roof of the residence for private use, offering breathtaking 360-degree views.

A garage and basement cellar complete this exceptional property.

A must-see!

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
