Property Description

Nestled within a vast 2.3-hectare expanse of verdant parkland, this 19th-century château is situated in close proximity to the township of Chantonnay and just 30 kilometers away from the captivating Puy du Fou. With its meticulously manicured gardens and serene, tranquil atmosphere, this château is the perfect getaway for those seeking a retreat from the hustle and bustle of city life.

The Accommodation

The château comprises an entrance hall, a large dining room with a fireplace, a private dining room and a large reception room.

On the ground floor, you'll find a large, bright lounge, a fully-equipped professional kitchen, a bar/small lounge and 2 WCs.

The château has 10 bedrooms and 9 bathrooms, all of which were refurbished in 2020 to a very high standard.

The Gîtes

Two fully private gîtes of approx. 75 sqm; and 34 sqm; with a heated outdoor swimming pool (12x5m).

Outbuildings

An orangery and a stable in the wooded area of the vast garden.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
